Mr. Bernie Stoltz - CEO, Fortune Management

In early 1990, Bernie Stoltz's infectious enthusiasm and simple-to-implement business strategies caught the eye of Anthony Robbins, world famous personal achievement coach and author. Since then, Bernie has conducted hundreds of training programs across the globe to help thousands of health care practitioners become their professional and personal best. Bernie is a no-nonsense speaker who packs his programs with relevant information. He is known for presenting practical solutions for complex issues that practices face today. Participants will have an outstanding experience, understanding significant practice management successes of dentists, and other health care practitioners, and leave with practical information that will make a difference in their business and personal lives.

Mr. Tom Moseman - Sr. VP, EnviroSell

Researching shopper behavior and how it correlates with store design, product merchandising and retail operations is the cornerstone of EnviroSell. Mr. Moseman has worked with EnviroSell since 1989 specializing in consumer shopping behavior. Studying how shoppers respond to their retail environment is instrumental to understanding "why people buy." With this knowledge, Mr. Moseman teaches how to create an optimum purchasing environment. EnviroSell has extensive experience working with numerous retailers and manufacturers, including those in the vision care sector. Clients include, Starbucks, The Gap, Citibank, Best Buy, Bank of America, Staples, RadioShack, and others. An accomplished presenter, Tom turns his expertise into insightful, informative and entertaining sessions.

Dr. Walt West - CEO, Practice Management Academy

As every optometrist starting his own practice discovers, there is a lot more to the business than examining patients and writing prescriptions. Dr. Walt West founded the Primary Eyecare Group, Inc., a current Vision Source practice in Brentwood, Tennessee and practiced there from 1975 to 2002. By the 8th year, he began doubling his business annually before settling in at steady double-digit growth until he sold his practice in 2003. Dr. West currently serves as an adjunct professor for the Southern College of Optometry. As a leading speaker, he has presented to professional audiences in 16 countries on 5 continents and is recognized internationally as an author and practice management expert. Dr. West is the Chief Editor of Optometric Management magazine and has recently published, "When Your Success Is On the Line."

Dr. Hans M. Kell - VP, Vision Source

Dr. Kell received his Doctor of Optometry degree from the Southern California College of Optometry in 1990. He followed by completing residency training at the West Los Angeles Veterans Administration Medical Center in 1991. He then held a Staff Optometrist position at the University of Miami's Bascom Palmer Eye Institute. In 1996, Dr. Kell left the Institute to assist in opening and overseeing an ophthalmic medical/surgical co-management center with the Pacific Cataract and Laser Institute in Anchorage Alaska. In 1999, Dr. Kell and his wife, Jennifer, decided to raise their family closer to home, and as a result joined his brother in private practice at the Front Range Eye Health Center in Louisville, Colorado. From 2001 through 2008, Dr. Kell also served as co-administrator for the Colorado Vision Source network. Dr. Kell transitioned from private practice and joined Vision Source's senior management team full-time as Vice President of Practice Development in July 2008. He now resides with his family in Kingwood Texas.
